

THE STARJAMMER GROUP

Press Release – CAD Engineer wanted

Monday 4th July 2011

Starjammer Engineering is currently looking for a part-time Computer Aided Design Engineer, with 2 or more years experience in railways, ideally in Bentley Microstation V8 for some diverse and interesting work. The contract will be for three months, but may be extended.

The suitable applicant must be flexible, able to work unsupervised and know about track layouts in accordance with Network Rail guidelines. Some London Underground experience would be desirable.

The deadline for this application is Monday 29th July 2011.

Please send your CVs to the address below with salary requirements to cv@starjammer-group.com, for the attention of Steven Parham, re: GB10262.

We look forward to hearing from you.
