

THE STARJAMMER GROUP

Press Release – The Starjammer Group Websites

Monday, 10th April 2006

The newly incorporated Starjammer Group is pleased to announce its new website, to coincide with the launch of Starjammer Engineering's revamped website, and the introduction of Starjammer Internet Services and Starjammer Aerospace's new sites.

We have also revamped our logo and corporate identity, to reflect changes afoot in the group. Starjammer Engineering retains its blue theme. Starjammer Internet Services has a global remit, hence the logo inset into the green globe. Starjammer Aerospace's red livery is we hope, the colour of things to come – the red symbolises our long term dynamic intentions.
